- 1 a What might / may / could happen in these countries if ...? If you can't remember the missing details, look at your Student's Book (p. 92) again.

Example:

- 1 If you show your feet or shoes in Thailand,
people / think / that ...

If you show your feet or shoes in Thailand, people might think that you want to insult them.

- 2 Japanese people / smile / if ...

- 3 People in the Middle and Far East / think / that you are unclean if you ...

- 4 In Greece or Bulgaria people / take / a “yes” for a “no” if you ...

- b Now do some more research on the internet about different customs* in different cultures. Here are some further questions:

- 1 In which country do people show their tongues when they greet members of their family and friends?
- 2 How often do French people kiss each other's cheeks when they meet?
- 3 In which country is it a common custom to wash the guest's feet as a greeting?

VOCABULARY: *custom – Brauch

Answer these questions. Then try to find out about two more customs and write sentences about them.

1 Look at the pictures. What might / may / could happen next? Use a verb from the box for each situation to write a sentence.
